Dumfries Show Food Festival

The Market on tour...

We are delighted to announce that Dumfries Farmers Market will be part of the Dumfries Show Food Festival on Saturday the 3rd of August. Dumfries Show is a spectacular demonstration of local farming and food producers attracting visitors from across the country for the one day display. There are also sections for the home and garden industries, stick making, a large craft fair, a food festival with cookery theatre and a young farmers section as well as a huge array of stands throughout the show field. They aim to put on an entertaining, educational show in a safe environment for all the family whether they be involved in farming or not. It is always a great day out.

For more information on Dumfries Show please click HERE.

A lot of the regular traders at Dumfries Farmers' Market will be showcasing their produce in the Food Festival tent under the Dumfries Farmers' Market banner. We want to promote our market to a wider local audience that may not be aware that a lot of the traders they look forward to trade every month in the town, at the station. If you are coming along on show day please pop along and see us, have a chat, try a sample and tell your nearest and dearest about our market! The next one will be happening on the Sunday the 4th, the day after the show!
